Experience It! Olive Orchard Experience

Hecho A Mano Con Amor (Made By Hand With Love) is the mission of Sandy Oaks Olive Orchard, located in the countryside outside of San Antonio. Owner Sandy Winokur was a pioneer in bringing this ancient crop to Texas in 1998. Her orchard has grown over the years to encompass 11,000 trees in more than two dozen varieties. Insisting on a high-quality standard, the only grade of oil the orchard produces is extra virgin olive oil. In addition to oil, they also produce a high-quality olive oil and olive leaf blended skincare product line. Visiting the Sandy Oaks Olive Orchard is a learning experience led by Sandy herself. She will explain the cultivation process of the olives during a walk through the orchard. Then, enjoy a culinary experience to include a tasting of the final product.

Highlights: Fiesta de las Luminarias, LBJ Ranch, Fredericksburg, Mission San Jose, The Alamo, Paseo del Rio Cruise, Mayan Dude Ranch, South Texas Heritage Center, El Mercado, Sandy Oaks Olive Orchard

Day 1: Thursday, December 1, 2016 San Antonio, Texas - Tour Begins One visit to San Antonio and it's easy to see why this place is often referred to as the "American Venice." Historic missions, River Walk restaurants, Spanish architecture and a beautiful river centerpiece make this a truly remarkable city. The sights and sounds of the holiday celebrations are sure to immerse you in the spirit of the season. Following dinner, perhaps you will choose to enjoy the Fiesta de las Luminarias and stroll along the San Antonio River guided by more than 2,500 luminaries.

This evening get to know your fellow travelers at a welcome reception.

Day 2: Friday, December 2, 2016 San Antonio - Stonewall - Fredericksburg - San Antonio Journey to Stonewall and enjoy a visit to the LBJ Ranch, birthplace of the 36th President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson. On your tour of the ranch you will view the "Texas White House" and learn about living in the Texas Hill Country. Then, continue to Fredericksburg, located in the heart of the Texas Hill Country. The holiday season is a fabulous time to visit with its seasonal festivities and decorations flavored by German heritage. (B)

Day 3: Saturday, December 3, 2016 San Antonio - Bandera - San Antonio Your day begins with a fascinating tour of San Antonio with a local guide. History and culture abound with a visit to the Mission San Jose, the second mission established by Fray Antonio Margil de Jesus in 1720. This is followed by a visit to the Alamo, which played a critical role in the Texas Revolution. People worldwide continue to remember the Alamo as a heroic struggle against impossible odds – a place where men made the ultimate sacrifice for freedom. Later, be surrounded by holiday cheer during a riverboat ride on the Paseo del Rio. Relax as the narrated cruise takes you along the San Antonio River Walk and admire the many holiday decorations. Tonight, arrive in Bandera, the “Cowboy Capital of the World,” for a traditional Texas cowboy barbecue and entertainment at an authentic dude ranch

beautifully decorated for the holiday season. (B, D)

Day 4: Sunday, December 4, 2016 San Antonio Visit the South Texas Heritage Center, an interactive museum dedicated to sharing the stories of San Antonio’s people and the land that has shaped their lives. Next, browse for one-of-a-kind goods at El Mercado, the Mexican Marketplace. This afternoon, visit the picturesque Sandy Oaks Olive Orchard. Enjoy a tour of the orchard and learn about its history before indulging in a spectacular farewell lunch. Savor the Texas-inspired tasting menu artfully paired with locally-produced wines. Later, return to San Antonio enjoy some leisure time to discover the city on your own. (B, L)

Day 5: Monday, December 5, 2016 San Antonio - Tour Ends We are certain you will agree the history, cuisine, people, music, and the sights and sounds of San Antonio create wonderful holiday memories. (B)
